"The DISTINCTION between two Doctrines: Salvation vs. Assurance" – Part 2
A Johannine Masterpiece
1 John 5:13

Part 1

The Doctrine of Salvation: The objective & monergistic work of our Triune God to rescue sinners from the penalty of sin (God's Condemnation), the power of sin (its Control), and the presence of sin (its Corruption) by the substitutionary life, death, burial, and resurrection of the Jesus Christ, the Son of God; who alone procured for the sinner eternal life. Rom. 8:29-34; Eph. 1:3-14; Titus 3:4-6; 1 Peter 1:2

It answers the Objective questions...

Does God save sinners from his wrath? Does God forgive sinners and grant them everlasting life? If so, how does He accomplish this without compromising the Truth, His justice, or His holiness?

The Gospel according to John is about proving objectively (by sign miracles... visible evidence) that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, who alone grants everyone who believes everlasting Life because of his life, death, burial, and resurrection. John 20:30-31

The Doctrine of Assurance: The subjective & inner Conviction, Expectation, and Ownership of the believer possessing the inheritance of eternal L.I.F.E in Christ. This is marked by (1) faith in the person and finished work of the gospel, (2) the power of the gospel working in/through that saving faith true obedience and love, and (3) the promise indwelling of the Holy Spirit who confirms our sonship. John 3:16-17; 5:24; John 6:40; 20:30-31; Rom. 8:14-17; Gal. 4:4-6

It answers the Subjective questions....

Did God truly forgive me, did he grant me everlasting life, do I have possession of this gracious inheritance, did Jesus die for my sins, did Jesus raise for my justification? How do I know that I am truly saved by God through the perfect work of Christ?

The First Epistle of John is about proving subjectively how the believer can know that they possess the inheritance of everlasting Life in Christ with God (our permanent relationship). 1 John 5:13

Why are these distinctions critical for the Christian?

1) To clarify the Sovereignty of God in Salvation and the human responsibility of the believer in assurance. John 1:12-13; Eph. 2:4-6
2) To classify Salvation as a work of God alone apart from our works, and assurance being a collaborative work between God and the believer. Eph. 2:8-9; Phil. 2:12-13; 1 John 3:18-21
3) To codify the permanence of Salvation and the conditional privilege of assurance. John 10:27-29
4) To crystalize how Salvation is how one enters a right relationship with God, and assurance is about how one confidently enjoys their right relationship with God. PS. 51:12; John 17:2-3

5) To categorize eternal security as the objective reality of the believer in Christ, and assurance as the subjective confidence in the believe possessing a salvation that is eternally secure. John 6:37-39
6) To caution against a mere knowledge and an intellectual ascent to the gospel as the exclusive grounds of assurance without the necessary obedience to Christ, rooted in a saving faith. Matt. 7:21-28; James 2:14-26

Part 2
